MOBIUS REDACTION

Maintain Privacy of Protected & Private Information

PROTECT DATA PRIVACY AND REDUCE COMPLIANCE RISK

Securing and protecting personal and sensitive identifiable information (PII and SPI) is a priority in today's increasingly regulated world. Failure to properly protect private data may have costly consequences, not only for organizations and government agencies, but also for the people whose privacy they are protecting. Mobius Redaction is a native software application that provides rules-based full and partial redaction that can be automated to protect personal and sensitive information from unauthorized viewing.

Rules-based redaction policies applied and automated to content about private individuals

BENEFITS

- Support information privacy by automatically redacting PII and SPI

- Manage personal data in line with privacy regulations

- Reduce costs & errors by eliminating 3rd party redaction tools & manual processes

- Create end to end redaction by integrating with content & records management processes

- Reduce the risk & cost of regulatory compliance

REDACT PRIVATE DATA AT THE SOURCE

Mobius Redaction masks personally identifiable and sensitive information stored in the Mobius content repository to prevent unauthorized viewing. Mobius Redaction also masks private content that has been federated into a single view by Mobius Content Services. The redaction process can be automated based on a set of defined business rules and user roles or manually activated by querying content in a repository to find information that needs to be partially or fully removed from view.

COMPLY WITH POLICIES, LAWS AND REGULATIONS

Mobius Redaction includes predefined personal and sensitive content sets. It also allows for any other pre-defined textual information to be redacted.

- Full name
- Home address
- Email address
- Digital identity
- Date of birth
- Birthplace
- Genetic information
- Login name, screen name, nickname, or handle

- Telephone number

ACHIEVE COMPLIANCE WITHOUT INCREASING COST

Mobius Redaction can redact personal and sensitive information from any file format including but not limited to AFP, Excel, JPEG, PCL, PDF, TIFF, Word. It can be deployed on-premises, on private or public cloud, or in a hybrid environment. This gives users the flexibility to mask personal and sensitive data regardless of file format and storage location. Mobius Redaction eliminates the need to purchase 3rd party redactions tools, duplicate content to mask personal date or migrate it to another system protecting content from unauthorized viewing and complying with data privacy regulations.
